Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Coop Academy Leeds encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- Speaking directly with the Exams Officer to see if an agreement can be met.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Natalie Jones, Headteacher.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 calendar days of the notification of the outcome of the enquiry. Subject to the Head of Centre's decision, this will allow the centre to process the appeal and submit to the awarding body within the required 14 calendar days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Put into writing their issues and the steps that have already been taken to attempt a resolution.

How a formal complaint is investigated offer the complainant a meeting and speak to others involved, and review relevant documents.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 14 calendar days

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- make a further representation to the head of centre. Following this, the head of centre's decision as to whether to proceed with an appeal will be based upon the centre's internal appeals arrangements. Candidates, parents/carers are not permitted to make.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 calendar days of the notification of the outcome of the enquiry. Subject to the Head of Centre's decision, this will allow the centre to process the appeal and submit to the awarding body within the required 14 calendar days.

The appeal will be referred to:

- Natalie Jones, Headteacher

It will be the responsibility of Samantha Walker, Exams Officer, to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.

Additional details on the internal appeals process:

Not applicable.
